

kid. I still remember the first race I ever went to. It was the coolest thing I'd ever seen in my life, by several orders of magnitude. And I'd seen lots of cool things. After that, I knew I would love to be a race car driver, but that seemed as likely as becoming an astronaut and going to the moon. Then one day in September 1995, when I was a broke junior lawyer starting out in Calgary, I went to Race City Speedway in Calgary, as I often did, to sit in the stands and watch the races. Coincidentally, a partner from my firm was there and he told me he'd always wanted to get into racing but he had become too old to drive (I think he was actually younger than I am now, but he seemed awfully old at the time). After the race we went into the pits and he bought an old street stock, and I was to be the driver. That was the best day of my life to that point, and I'd had some pretty good days.

Q. What are your best and worst racing moments? A. Best: The first lap I ever took around a race track, which was in a full-on race at Race City Speedway in my street stock the next spring. Worst: Later in the same race, when my steering column broke and I hit the wall head-on at full speed.

Q. Who helps with your set-up? A. If I told you that I would have to kill you.

Q. Do you read and think a lot about race car set-up? A. Constantly while awake and at most other times as well.
