Lucas Wins

2009 street stock division champion Scott Lucas finally chased down that elusive checkered flag, picking up his first 2010 feature win and winner's plaque in the SKL Trailers pro truck division Saturday night at Auto Clearing Motor Speedway in his #27 Eskes Seal Coating Dodge Ram.

#9 Tony Mikulcik was second while Ken Ross, who has become known for his spectacular finishes didn't disappoint Saturday as he hung on to third after he went into the wall hard on the final run for the line in the #67 Grace Beyer RE/Max Toyota Tundra.

McClennon Wins Super Truck Battle

Jamie McClennon with the first place trophy in the Doosan 100, part of the Bobcat of Saskatoon series in the JB Water and Vacuum Service Super Truck Racing

Wainwright's Jamie McClennon, stretching out his shoulders, says he's never driven so hard, never had a workout like he went through Saturday night at Auto Clearing Motor Speedway. McClennon, driving the Porky's Oilfield Service Silverado held off late charges by Wainwright neighbour Neil Fitzgerald and Calgary's Larry Cramer to claim the Doosan 100 win, the second of four super truck races in the Bobcat of Saskatoon series.

Earlier in the evening McClennon picked up two trophies, one for qualifying fastest at 15.029 seconds, and the second, a badge of honour as his qualifying time set a new track record in the Super Truck Racing category. Larry Cramer was second and Neil Fitzgerald third in qualifying.

In the first heat, the eight fastest trucks from qualifying, Neil Fitzgerald came out on top, followed by McClennon and Darin Guillet in third. The second heat, which is made up of the eight slower trucks in qualifying, Brian Sparks from Edgerton Alberta came out on top. He was followed by Stan Skinner and Gary Sarnecki.

Back to the fast qualifiers for heat C, and Darin Guillet from Calgary picked up his first checkered flag, followed across the line by Cramer and Fitzgerald. And finally in Heat D, Wainwright's Gary Miller was victorious, with Kevin McLean coming in second and Brian Sparks picking up third.

The Flagman Is Always Watching

Once again the black flag, the flagman's ultimate sign of displeasure, didn't collect any dust Saturday night as it flew often in the early heat races.

In lap five of the first super truck heat, Dan Saunders went into the #18 of Ron Elder Jr., turning him on the front straight and backwards into the wall. The crash finished Elder's truck for the night and sent Saunders to the pits for the balance of the race.

Then, on the opening lap of the SKL Trailer pro truck qualifier, Bill Zubrecki drew a black flag when it was ruled he didn't do enough to prevent Deb Newnham from spinning out when they came together.

A few laps later, in lap four, Neil Schneider was sent to his pit after Scott Lucas was spun out. Lucas drew a warning when he bumped Schneider on the back stretch, letting him know he wasn't happy.

Wild Minis

The Parts Source mini stocks had a wild night of racing as well, even though there was a number of substitute drivers in the cars. No black flags, but a number of drivers were warned to settle down before the feature.

Kenny Heintz continued his climb up the points ladder with a win in the heat race, followed by Greg Vangool and Todd Jalbert. Jalbert picked up the qualifier win, with Colin Puttick and Kenny Heintz following him across the finish line.

In the Parts Source mini stock feature, a last lap pass on Colin Puttick gave Todd Jalbert and the Sponge Car Square Tires Honda the win. This was Jalbert's fourth feature win. Taking second was Colin Puttick in the #2 "That'll Do" Honda Civic, for his best feature finish. Third across the line was Greg Vangool, driving Frank's #77 "The Shark" 77 Signs Tiburon.

Different Expectations of Racing

Too Shiny! Those were the two words flagman Lloyd Mykytyshyn had for the Cooper Tire thunder stocks in the pre-race pit meeting. He was going to let them, no, he expects them to mix it up a little. And they did.

Mike Rea took the first thunder stock checkered flag, winning the heat race. He was chased across the line by Mickey Pogoda and Barry Stefaniuk.

The same cars mixed it up a bit for the qualifier, with Stefaniuk taking the win, Mickey still second and Mike Rea in third.

In the Cooper Tire thunder stock feature, it was a repeat of the heat, with Mike Rea taking the win in the #18 Rea Bros Racing Monte Carlo. Mickey Pogoda was second in the #49 Prairie Meats Special Impala and Barry Stefaniuk settled for third, after a last lap ride through the grass, in the #81 Led Sled Impala.

The message was the opposite in the meeting with the SKL Trailer Pro Trucks. Too much fiberglass getting broken. Settle down!

It was a hot night for Tony Mikulcik as he picked up the win in the heat race, followed by Scott Williams and Scott Luca.

Ben Busch picked up the first win of the year for the #49 P.A. Auto Body Silverado, taking the checkered in the qualifier.

Alex Leschenko was second and Scott Williams was third.

As covered elsewhere Scott Lucas picked up his first feature win of the year, with Tony Mikulcik second and Ken Ross third in the SKL Trailers Pro Truck Feature.

The fourth place finishes for Alex Leschenko in the heat and the feature were his first finishes outside the top three in 2010.
